The bill provides that the Commissioner of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles shall administer the newly created Indiana Moose Association Trust Fund and the Indiana Street Rodders' Trust Fund. Expenses of administering the Funds shall be paid from the Funds.

Explanation of State Revenues: (Revised) Potential revenue from the sales of the Indiana Moose Association Trust License Plate License Plate and the Indiana Street Rodders' License Plate are not known. There will be an administrative fee of $12 charged for each plate. Revenue from these plates will be split evenly between the State License Branch Fund which supports the license branches and the Motor Vehicle Highway Account which supports the BMV.

In 1998, sales of the existing 41 special plates ranged from 47 Marine Reserve plates to 79,997 Children's Trust Plates. Within this potential sales range, revenue resulting from the existing $12 administrative fee ranged from $282 to $479,982 per plate. The bill provides for a $25 annual fee for the newly created plates. Using the 1998 sales mentioned above, revenue resulting from the $25 annual fee could range from $1,175 to $1,999,925. This money would be deposited in the newly created Indiana Moose Association Trust Fund or the Indiana Street Rodders Trust Fund as appropriate. Money in the Funds does not revert to the State General Fund at the end of the State fiscal year. On June 30 of each year the Commissioner of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles shall distribute the money from the sale of the Indiana Moose Association Trust License Plate to the Indiana Mooseheart Association. On June 30 of each year the Commissioner of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles shall distribute the money from the sale of the Indiana Street Rodders' Association Trust License Plate to the Indiana Street Rodders' Association.

It should be noted that it is possible that sales of this special plates could, to some extent, supplant the sales of the other special plates.

The plates will be available after December 31, 2000.
